DETROIT PURE STREET DANCE SPONSORED BY:

pat scott  jewelers

Belly dancers and drummers will perform throughout the streets of Detroit beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 14 in the name of peace.

The dance group PURE believes that cultural awareness and community healing can be achieved through dance and music. The group, known as Public Urban Ritual Experiment (PURE), will feature continual dancing and drumming throughout the city. For several hours the women will perform, non-stop at significant Detroit locations including: Greek Town, The Spirit of Detroit statue (across from Hart Plaza), Cobo Hall, Renaissance Center (water side entrance), Campus Martius Park, Grand Circus Park (near Comerica Park), Fox Theatre and at the After Glow party.

The dancers are teachers and performers who will perform together in public as a group on July 14. It's one of the many future PURE street dances that will occur throughout metro-Detroit.
